The members shall be chosen in conformity with principles concerning equal opportunities.

Additional members may be chosen for the Commission as computer expert examiners and English language expert examiners.

The assignment of the Commission members shall be posted on the official University on-line notice board and on the website <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>

During the first reunion the Commission shall define:

- the criteria for scores awarded for qualifications;
- the criteria regarding methods of evaluation of the examinations;
- the examination procedures.

4. Selection

If a great number of applications is received, the Administration reserves the right to announce a shortlisting test, which will take place before the actual exam tests. This shortlisting test will be performed under the responsibility of a Judging Commission, which might be supported by a specialised company. It will consist of a multiple-choice test, whose subject is the same as the actual test, as well as the inclination towards the job performance. They will be allowed to take part to the shortlisting all those, who have submitted their application within the deadline. Thus, prerequisites, compliance and completeness of the application will be verified subsequently. Precisely, only the shortlisted candidates' requirement will be verified.

The list of the eligible candidates will be publicised on the University online Albo Pretorio and on the University web site, at the following link <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>, at least 15 days before the shortlisting test. This action will be considered as a legal notification. Consequently, no written notification will be mailed to the candidates.

If the candidate is not present at the shortlisting test- no matter the cause of the absence- he/she will be banned from the competition.

The score of the shortlisting test, which is not the actual exam test, will not be added up to the final score.

Candidates are selected based on qualifications and examinations.

A total of 90 points are awarded for qualifications and examinations. They are divided as follows:

- 30 points for qualifications;
- 60 points for examinations (30 points for written test and 30 for oral examination).

➤ Qualifications

The evaluation of the qualifications, subject to the criteria determined by the Selection Commission in their first reunion, will be carried out after the written test and before proceeding with the correction of the related documents. Candidates admitted to the oral examination will be notified of their qualification-assessment result before the oral examination, through posting of the results in the examination center.

The qualifications that will be assessed are:

4) technical and/or scientific and/or professional training, other than courses aimed at gaining language skills and ICT competences.	max 3 points

Candidates must hold the abovementioned qualifications on the date of the selection announcement deadline. Candidates must attach a substitutive declaration or a statutory declaration (ANNEX B), dated and signed, including a photocopy of a valid ID document, to his/her application for assessment.

The University Administration reserves the right, to carry out appropriate evaluations on the truthfulness of the substitutive declarations.

The provisions indicated in commas 2, 3 and 4 of Art. 3 of the abovementioned Presidential Decree 445/2000 are implemented for non-EU citizens, and any further amendments and integrations.

References to qualifications submitted to this Administration or other Administrations or references to documents attached to other application forms submitted to other selection announcements, are not admitted.

Certificates or documents written in a foreign language must include a certified Italian language translation compliant with the foreign text, issued by the competent Consulate or diplomatic office which states that it is conform to the original text.

➤ Examinations

The examinations will comprise a written test and an oral examination:

-The written test will consist of an essay that may include the following topics:

- methods of experimental scientific research,
- techniques for data analysis,
- software and systems for scientific computing.

-The oral examination will include the following topics:

- application of experimental scientific research methods with particular reference to neuroimaging,
- methods for data analysis,
- software and systems for scientific computing,
- scientific programming (e.g. MatLab, Python, C++, R).

Basic computer skills and knowledge of the English language will be tested. The results of these tests will be comprised in the overall mark of the oral examination, as a percentage set by the selection commission.

Evaluations regarding the possession of the selection requirements and regularity of the applications submitted will be carried out before the written test.

A list of the candidates admitted to the written test will be published on the official on-line University noticeboard and website: <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>, at least 5 days before the date of the written test, and is valid for all legal purposes. No further notice will be given.

Candidates will be admitted conditionally should additional submission be required, in which case candidates must complete their application within the deadline assigned, or they will be excluded.

Candidates not admitted to the examinations will receive an official notification of exclusion, which will be anticipated by an e-mail to the address indicated on the application form.

Candidates affected by disorders limiting their autonomy who applied for assistance during the examinations, will be assisted pursuant to Art. 4 e 20 Law n. 104/1992, by personnel assigned by the University.

Candidates with disabilities who requested assistive devices and/or extra time to complete the examinations must attach to his/her application form documents certifying his or her handicapped condition issued by the Local Health Authority or an equivalent Public Authority. These certificates must specify how the limitations of these disabilities condition their performance in the examinations. The granting and admission of these assistive devices will be determined by the Selection Commission whose unappealable decision will be based on certification submitted, and counsel by the University's disability delegate.

During the examinations, candidates must not bring writing paper, notes, manuscripts, books or any type of written document. Candidates may use a dictionary. Candidates may also consult uncommented legal texts with the Selection Commission's approval.

Any device used for storage of information or transmission of data shall not be admitted. Candidates must not communicate with each other either verbally or written, or contact others except for invigilators and members of the Selection Commission.

5. Calendar and Examination procedures

The examinations will take place in the University using computer and digital tools. If requested by the Commission, the oral examination will be possibly held in video conferencing, if necessary.

The WRITTEN TEST will be taken on June 08th 2022, at 10.30. The mentioned calendar has the value of publication and notification for all legal purposes; any change will be notified on the University online Albo Pretorio and on the University web site, at the following link: <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>

Candidates who receive a minimum score of 21/30 on the written test will be admitted to the oral examination.

Candidates admitted to the oral examination will be notified of their written test score by registered mail or certified email if indicated, at least 20 days before the oral examination.

The oral examination pass mark is 21/30, and will be carried out in an exam room wide enough to assure maximum audience participation, in compliance with Covid-19 anti-contagious standards.

To be admitted to the exam room, candidates must present one of the following valid identity documents, pursuant to Art. 35 of Presidential Decree. n.445/2000: identity card, passport or driving license, identity badge, all including a photograph and seal or other type of equivalent seal issued by the State Administration.

At the end of each oral examination, the Selection Commission will draw up a list of the examined candidates and their score. This list will be posted on the same day and venue where the oral examinations took place.

Candidates absent even for one examination will be deemed to have waived their place in the selection.

Candidates who passed the oral examination and wish to receive preference as applicants of equal merit (evaluation), and priority for equal merit and qualifications (Presidential Decree no. 487/1994 -ANNEX I-), must submit, within 15 days of the date following the oral examination, an unstamped document stating the status they hold as applicants of equal merit and priority as indicated in their application form and where the candidate indicated the possession of the selection requirements by the selection application deadline. These documents may be substituted by the certificates indicated in the Presidential Decree D.P.R. n. 445/2000, or a copy of the documents stating its compliance with the original documents, pursuant to Art. 19bis of the abovementioned D.P.R.

University Administration reserves the right to carry out appropriate evaluations on the truthfulness of the substitutive declarations

6. General Merit Ranking

At the end of the examination sessions, the Selection Commission will draw up a temporary overall general merit ranking of the candidates starting from the highest score to the lowest. The overall final score comprises the sum of the written test score, oral examination score and score for qualification assessment.

The general merit ranking, including the ranking of the winner based on the recruitment needs of this selection announcement, in compliance with the terms indicated and on condition of the preferences /priorities listed in ANNEX 1, will be approved by a provision of the Director General and published on the official University on line noticeboard and the "G. D'Annunzio" University website: <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>.

Notification that the ranking has been published on the University on-line noticeboard will be communicated in the Official Journal of the Republic (G.U.). Any appeals may be filed the day the ranking is published.

For the merit ranking validity, please refer to the current legislation.

7. Stipulation of the individual contract of employment

Following the approval of the general merit ranking, the successful candidate/s will be hired on probation for 4 weeks. At the end of this probation period, the employee shall be confirmed taking duty if no parties dissolved the employment contracts.

The successful candidate/s will be hired with individual full-time (36hour/week) fixed-term contracts for 18 months, as Technologist, category D salary scale D4, as deliberated by the Board of Administration dated 29/03/2022, conditioned by the evaluations of the requirements indicated. The total salary category will include a University allowance.

The successful candidate/s must confirm, pursuant to Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, by self-drafted certification, that he/she meets the requirements for employment as specified in this announcement, on the signing of the contract. The University doctor will ascertain if the candidates/employees are physically suitable for the position.

The administration will complete appropriate checks on the accuracy of the self-drafted certification. Should checks reveal false statements, the candidates will lose all benefits resulting from the false information provided, as indicated in the provisions of art. 76 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000 regarding fines provided for by criminal law and special laws in this field.

Upon taking duty, the successful candidate/s must not have other employment contracts in the public or private sector, nor have any of the incompatible situations as indicated in Art. 53 Legislative Decree n. 165/2001 and must decide in favour of the employment contracts with this University.

The successful candidate must not have any of the incompatible situations indicated in Art. 7 of the University Regulations for recruiting fixed-term technologists issued by Rector's Decree no.575/2019- prot. n. 26558 dated 12.4.2019:

"Article 7 - Incompatibility

1. The contract of employment, pursuant this regulation, is not compatible with other similar employment contracts, nor with other universities or with private scientific institutions, nor with doctoral research programmes, research grants, or other forms of post-graduate training offered by any university or research body.

2. Additional external tasks may be carried out with the Director General's authorization.

3. Employment as a fixed-term technologist is not compatible with work in commerce or industry; full-time occupation is not compatible with freelance activity.

4. Technologists are prohibited from carrying out any kind of healthcare activities or support."

Should the successful candidate/s take up duty later than the fixed date, due to justified reason, wages, terms and conditions of his employment shall take effective starting from his first day of duty. Failure to take up duty by the fixed date without justified reason, shall result in immediate dissolution of the contracts.

Non-EU citizens must hold one of the permits of stay as provided for in current legislation regarding immigration for stipulation of an individual contract of employment with the University. Thus, should the successful candidate not have a valid permit of stay for recruitment or should the successful candidate not proceed contextually with application for a permit of stay in the cases required by law, the contract of employment will not be stipulated. In the abovementioned cases, the candidate shall be forfeited from the ranking and the next successful candidate in the ranking shall be chosen for recruitment. Assessment of the abovementioned conditions shall be carried out upon taking up duty. In addition, contracts will be rescinded should any permits of stay (as required for employment contracts) become non-valid after stipulation of the employment contract.

8. Handling of personal data

The handling of personal data is carried out in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679.

The personal data transmitted by the candidates in their selection applications are processed exclusively for the purposes of the selection procedure, also in on-line procedure. The submission of personal data is mandatory for participation in the selection. Handling of personal data will continue following stipulation of employment contracts for management of the work agreement.

The candidates are invited to read the information sheet regarding the handling of personal data: "Information of Selection Procedures-Employee area" published on the University website at: www.unich.it/privacy.

9. Organization Unit and Selection-procedure manager

For the effects of the present selection announcement, the responsible Organization Unit is Divisione 2 – Technical-Administrative Staff office (Personale Tecnico, Amministrativo e Biblioteche), Via dei Vestini, 31 – 66100 Chieti Scalo, tel. n. 0871-3556296/6992/6086/6087/6096, e-mail: reclutamento.pta@unich.it. The Selection-procedure manager is Dott.ssa Lara D'Auro.

10. Reference Laws

Any items for which no specific provision has been made in this call for applications shall be regulated by the provisions governing competitions, current provisions concerning public employment and the National Collective Bargaining Agreement, since compatible.

11. Publication

This announcement is posted on the official University on-line noticeboard and the "G. d'Annunzio" University website: <https://www.unich.it/ateneo/concorsi-e-gare/bandi-tecnologi-ex-art-24bis-l-n-2402010>.

It has also been sent to the MIUR and the European Union for publication in both Italian and English on their respective websites. The selection announcement is published in the Official Journal of the Republic (G.U.) – IV special series "Selection announcements and examinations".
